ABOUT JAIPUR

THE PINK CITY OF INDIA Jaipur, the capital of Rajasthan, is one of the rare examples of 18th century town built after careful planning. It was established by Maharaja Sawai Jai Singh in the year 1727. Jaipur is predominantly known for its musicians, artisans and craftsmen. There are innumerable sagas and stories of the culture, traditions and practices associated with the city of Jaipur. This diverse land of rich culture and heritage is a royal treat for tourists from all over the world. Some of the most popular tourist destinations in Jaipur include: Hawa Mahal - the palace of winds, Amber Fort - capital of erstwhile Jaipur state, Jantar Mantar - the largest working observatory, City Palace - the residence of erstwhile Maharaja of Jaipur, Nahargarh Fort - the hunting residence of erstwhile Maharajas and Jaigarh Fort. Jaipur is located approximately 270 km south of Delhi and 250 km west of Agra and is well connected to other parts of the country through air, rail and road transport.
